RECEIVING JASON PRODUCTS

TESTING AND QUALITY CONTROL

Before leaving the factory, all Jason hydrotherapy products are 100% water tested, quality inspected, hand cleansed and detailed before they are packaged to assure that merchandise leaving the factory meets optimum mechanical and aesthetic standards.

PACKAGING

Jason packaging systems are uniquely designed to protect our products and minimize the possibility of freight damage while in transit. The typical packaging system for our baths is as follows: A pallet board is attached to each bath unit and is designed to fit the inside of the bath carton snugly. Additionally, cardboard corner pieces lock the pallet board and the bath lip to prevent movement inside the box, and Styrofoam corner and side blocks are placed over the bath outer edges for further protection. Together, these components create internal cushions around the border and the base of each product, encasing and isolating the hydrotherapy product from the outside surface of the carton. Furthermore, the bath pump is attached to the pallet board. Once installed in a cardboard shipping box, the bath, pump and plumbing are very efficiently held together as a unit for shipment. Packaging systems may vary depending on size, weight, configuration and destination.

FREIGHT LINES

All products are shipped through large nationwide freight lines with whom we have a history of good service. However, there may be times when you receive product which has been improperly handled. Although the freight claims must be made on the receiving side, we will use our influence with our carriers to help expedite the claim.

RECEIVING JASON PRODUCTS

1. When Jason products arrive on your dock, immediately inspect each carton entirely for any visible damage. Inspect the carton label against your purchase order and bill of lading to verify you have received the correct product in the correct quantity.
2. If the carton shows even minimal signs of mishandling (torn, dented, etc.) but the product has no visible damage, sign for the shipment but make notations on the Bill of Lading concerning the condition of the carton. Use the model and serial number of that product on the bill of lading to identify which carton is damaged. The model and serial number can be found on the label on the outside of the carton. This notation will automatically provide you a period of nine (9) months within which to make a claim with the freight carrier.
3. If severe damage to the carton is found and you can determine that the product is damaged:
 - a. Refuse shipment.
 - b. Order replacement product through your Jason Account Manager. Be sure to specify that it is to - replace freight damaged product and identify the serial number of the damaged product.

 - c. The freight company will be responsible for contacting Jason and returning the damaged product.
4. If no damage is evident at delivery but is found later:
 - a. Call the freight company immediately to request an inspector to come out and fill out a damage report.
 - b. Get an estimate to have the product repaired. Should a field repair be desired, Jason's technical service department maintains a list of active plumbing, electrical and acrylic repair facilities around the country. Jason prefers to work with those whose name has been referred by the distributor as providing good service. All new distributors should contact Jason technical service to determine if we have a repair person in the area or to give a recommendation of someone with whom they have experience.
 - c. Submit a claim to the freight company for the repair amount along with the damage report and any other required documentation. If no notation was made on Bill of Lading, you have 2 days in which to report concealed damage. The product must not leave your dock. Do not move the product to a different location as this will nullify any claim that could have been filed.
 - d. If the product cannot be repaired, submit a claim to the freight company for the entire invoice price of the product along with the damage report and any other required documentation. Order a replacement product through your Jason Account Manager. Be sure to specify that it is to replace freight damaged product.

All product is shipped by Jason FOB, Factory; therefore, the buyer is responsible for the filing of any freight claims. Claims should be filed immediately as the normal payment terms on all product will still apply. Should you encounter problems with the freight claim, you may contact Jason Customer Service Department at 800.255.5766 and we will try to assist you in communicating and negotiating with the freight company.

If the product is refused due to visible damage, we will issue credit to your account when the product is received by us from the freight company. We will then file the freight claim for the damaged product accordingly.

Jason International hopes this information will assist you and your receiving personnel in receiving Jason product at your dock. We are constantly looking at ways to improve our shipping methods and helping you, our dealer. Following the above procedures should help you in eliminating lost dollars due to damaged freight.

Should you have any questions or like to discuss freight procedures, please call the Jason Customer Service Department at 800.255.5766.

3	Arizona, California, Connecticut, Delaware, District of Columbia, Idaho, Maine, Maryland, Massachusetts, Minnesota, Montana, Nevada, New Hampshire, New Jersey, North Dakota, Oregon, Rhode Island, South Dakota, Utah, Vermont, Washington, Wyoming	No Charge	$150

NOTE: Additional freight increases or freight surcharges incurred after this catalog has printed may affect this freight policy.

Drop Shipments, Notification Charges and Special Deliveries: While freight is prepaid in conformance to the schedule above, freight charges associated with alternate shipping locations, telephone notification by freight carrier, handling charges etc., are not. A $250.00 net per unit for all zones will be charged on the invoice for Designer and Integrity[®] collections in addition to any other freight charges for any order drop-shipped to a location in the continental USA other than the Consignee's place(s) of business. Any other special delivery requirements (such as liftgate fees, etc.) must be paid by the Consignee.

Title of the merchandise passes to the customer upon shipment. The buyer is therefore responsible for the product and filing any freight claims. Check for any visible damage on all product before acceptance. If the carton shows signs of damage, but the product has no apparent damage, make a notation on the Bill of Lading regarding the condition of the carton before receiving. If the carton and product are severely damaged, refuse shipment and order a replacement from our Customer Service Department. See freight terms regarding special deliveries in the above paragraph.

If no notation of possible product damage is made on the Bill of Lading, you have only 2 days in which to report concealed damage to the freight company. Claims must be filed immediately as the normal payment terms on all product will still apply. Should you encounter problems with the freight claim, you may contact the Jason Customer Service Department at 800.255.5766 and we will try to assist you in dealing with the freight company. Once freight is signed for free and clear, it is the customer's responsibility to collect for damages from the freight company. See page 138 for full instructions on receiving Jason products.

UPC CODES

To assist our customers with inventory control of our products, Jason has a UPC Code System.

All Jason product and accessories shipped will include UPC bar code labeling which will enable electronic identification and pricing of the product.

SHOWROOM DISPLAY PROGRAM

OVERVIEW

The Jason Showroom Display Program is designed to promote Jason products through displaying customer showrooms. All Jason direct customers are eligible to display selected baths and Bathware products from Jason's Designer and Integrity[®] collections.

- Designer Collection
- Integrity[®] Collection
- TZ3260 Zero Threshold Shower Base

INELIGIBLE PRODUCTS

- Designer Collection Shower Bases

PROGRAM OPTIONS

Option A – Standard Display Program: This option is available on eligible products purchased for display from Jason's Designer and Integrity[®] Collections. Displays purchased under the Standard Display Program are purchased at 75% (x.25) off the published list price. Net 60 day payment terms and standard freight terms apply.

Displays for Resellers and Model Homes under Option A – This Standard Display Program may be extended by Jason's direct Customers to their sub-accounts' showrooms, such as Reseller's Showrooms and Builder Model Homes. Displays must be ordered through the Jason Customer account holder, who will invoice their sub-accounts at a maximum discount of 70% (x.30).

Option B – Optional Display Program: This Optional Display Program is available on eligible product purchased for display from Jason's Designer Collection (except Soaking Baths). These products are purchased at 68% (x.32) off the published list price. Net 180 day payment terms and standard freight terms apply. For every Designer system bath purchased per Option B display within the 180 day period (up to a maximum of 6), Jason will prorate 1/6 of the cost of the Option B display against the balance due. For example: If 3 baths were ordered during the 180 day time frame, a credit of 1/2 (50%) of the invoiced amount of the display unit would be credited to the customer's display unit. The remaining balance of the display unit (50% of the invoiced amount) would then be due.

NOTE: Option B is not available for Designer Collection Soaking baths products. Option B is not available for Integrity[®] displays.

DISPLAYED PRODUCTS

Display products purchased under this program must be put on display within 30 days of receipt and remain on the showroom floor a minimum of twelve (12) consecutive months from the date of installation and be maintained in accordance with Jason standards.

All displays may be replaced at 12 months and must be replaced after 36 months from the date of purchase in order to keep the "most recent" technology in the Customer's showrooms. Always consider the ease of updating when installing display units.

While operating displays are ideal to effectively demonstrate our Quiet Design[™] therapy bath construction and MicroSilk[®], AirMasseur[®], Whirlpool and combination bath therapy action, the responsibility of installing and properly maintaining these display units lies with the displaying customer.

A Registered Showroom Display Agreement (see page 141) listing all products selected for display must be completed, signed and forwarded to Jason Hydrotherapy along with a Purchase Order marked "Display."

COOPERATIVE ADVERTISING PROGRAM

OVERVIEW

The Jason Cooperative Advertising Program is designed to help our displaying customers earn advertising dollars to assist with their promotional needs.

The purpose of this program is twofold: 1) To assist qualified customers in building their business through advertising; 2) To promote, advertise, and build recognition of Jason products and brand positioning.

All Jason Hydrotherapy direct, displaying customers in good standing are eligible to earn cooperative advertising (co-op) dollars.

GUIDELINES

Qualifications: To qualify for co-op dollars, a customer must buy directly from Jason Hydrotherapy; display Jason products in their showroom; and have an account that is in good standing. Showrooms that display Jason products that are purchased through a distributor must work with their distributor to obtain cooperative advertising assistance.

Co-op Advertisement Fund: The Jason co-op advertising fund is calculated by taking 2% of qualifying purchases. (Only products with the Group BE discounts qualify.) For customers who have been an active account for one full calendar year or longer, their current year co-op advertising fund is based on 2% of their prior year's BE purchases. Co-op funds must be used during the calendar year they are available or be forfeited.

Qualified Advertising: Co-op dollars may be used on the following advertising media: newspapers, magazines, radio and TV seen by the general public; trade journals, magazines, and/or newsletters read by plumbing or building contractors, interior designers, architects, or remodelers. The advertisements must promote Jason Hydrotherapy products exclusively and must use artwork, scripts, and visuals approved by Jason Hydrotherapy. Ready-to-Use ads, logos, pre-approval forms and claim forms are available on Jason's Showroom Support web page, www.jasoninternational.com/showroomsupport.

Non-Qualified Advertising: Integrity® brand product advertising does not qualify for co-op dollars. Any advertising not listed in the "Qualified Advertising" section above must have written pre-approval from the Jason Marketing Department. Any advertising which, in the opinion of the Jason Marketing Department, misrepresents Jason Hydrotherapy products, are vague, misleading, in bad taste, or misuse the Jason Hydrotherapy trademark or trade name do not qualify for co-op dollars. See the Jason Trademark Guidelines (page 146) for additional details.

Advertising shared with direct competitors of Jason Hydrotherapy does not qualify for co-op dollars.

Other non-qualifying advertising includes, but is not limited to: donations for any purpose; meals and refreshments; gifts; travel and lodging; display samples; cash and product incentive awards; freight; and professional fees for designers or advertisers. Jason Hydrotherapy reserves the right to add or delete exclusions without notification.

Pre-Approval Form: Each customer desiring to participate in this program must complete a Jason Cooperative Advertising Program Pre-Approval Form (see page 144) and obtain approval from the Jason Marketing Department prior to submitting a claim. Non-compliance with this requirement may disqualify the claim.

Filing a Claim: Complete and sign the Jason cooperative advertising program Co-op Claim Form (see page 145), attach a copy of the authorized Pre-Approval Form, paid invoices, and any other supporting "proof of performance" documents. Claims must be mailed, faxed or e-mailed to the Jason Marketing Department within 60 days of the media invoice dates and received by Jason no later than January 31 of the following year or be forfeited.

Reimbursement: Approved co-op claims are reimbursed via a credit memo to the customer's account and shall not exceed 50% of the cost of the eligible claims. When other manufacturers are included in the advertisement, Jason Hydrotherapy will only pay 50% of our proportional share. Unauthorized debits by the customer are not allowed.

ARTWORK

When creating an advertisement featuring Jason International products, be sure to obtain pre-approval from the Jason Marketing Department. The ad must prominently and correctly feature the Jason Logo and Jason supplied photography. The Jason Marketing Department will supply any artwork featured in our current Full-Line Brochure upon request. Graphic Design assistance is also available upon request and with adequate notice.

TRADEMARK GUIDELINES

JUST WHAT IS A TRADEMARK?

A trademark is a word, symbol, combination of letters and/or numbers, a design, or almost anything that is used to identify a company and differentiate the specific products of a specific company.

The proper use of a trademark will make your advertising more effective, because a trademark adds value to your offer.

Trademarks protect both consumers and businesses. By relying on a trademark, consumers can be assured that they are buying exactly what they intend to buy, and businesses can protect themselves from unscrupulous competitors who might otherwise copy their product names. Most companies register their trademarks with the federal government. Because a trademark is the legal property of a business, its use should be prudent and respected.

RECOGNIZING A TRADEMARK

A word or design that is followed by a ® is a trademark registered with the United States Patent and Trademark office.

A word or design that is followed by a ™ is also a trademark, though formal registration of the trademark may not be complete.

A word or design that is followed by an asterisk (*) may also be a trademark if a footnote on the communication identifies it as such.

A word that is treated differently from surrounding text is a trademark if the same word is used elsewhere in the communication and is followed by a ®, a ™, or otherwise identified as a trademark.

THE “NO-NOS” OF USING TRADEMARKS

Of course, you should never use a trademark of one company to describe a product made by another company. Also, you should never use a trademark as a noun. A trademark can only be an adjective. “Words” such as linoleum, cellophane, escalator, etc., were once trademarks, but the companies who owned these trademarks lost them because the “words” were frequently used as nouns instead of adjectives. Proper use, for example, would be “Linoleum floor covering,” or “Cellophane plastic wrap.” Never use a trademark without following it immediately by the common name for the product.

USING A JASON TRADEMARK

To use a Jason trademark, remember these four simple rules in each communication:

- (1) Identify the first use of a trademark with a ® or ™ immediately following, as appropriate. If you are unable to reproduce these characters, use an asterisk (*) along with a footnote stating “*Trademark of Jason

- (2) In subsequent uses of a trademark, it's not necessary to use the symbols ® or ™, so long as the trademark is typographically different from surrounding text.
- (3) Always use the trademark as an adjective. Don't write, “Buy a Jason®.” Instead write, “Buy a Jason® Whirlpool Bath.”
- (4) Never use a trademark of any other company to describe a Jason product, or vice versa.

USING THE NAME, REMO JACUZZI

Remo Jacuzzi is proud of his family heritage and proud of the contributions he made to the “other” whirlpool bath company while associated with that company as a manager and shareholder. Remo Jacuzzi is equally proud of the products made by Jason Hydrotherapy, the company he founded. Neither Jason Hydrotherapy, nor Remo Jacuzzi is associated with Jacuzzi Whirlpool Bath or Jacuzzi, Inc.

Here are two acceptable ways of using the name, Remo Jacuzzi, in your communications:

- (1) Remo Jacuzzi's name may be used in conjunction with the Jason Signature Series bath control emblem as it appears on the logo page.
- (2) Remo Jacuzzi's name may be used in reference to him as founder and/or past president of Jason Hydrotherapy. For example: “The Jason Designer Collection Whirlpool bath was personally designed by Remo Jacuzzi, Founder of Jason Hydrotherapy.”

USING THE JASON SLOGAN

Jason Hydrotherapy has used the following slogans in reference to the company's product offering:

“Behind Every Jason® Product Stands a Jacuzzi”
“Behind Every Jason® Bath Stands a Jacuzzi”

These slogans may be used in your advertising providing the following conditions are met.

- (1) The Jason ® trademark is dominant in the slogans; and
- (2) The name “Jacuzzi” is less dominant than the Jason trademark, and printed with only the first letter capitalized; and
- (3) The slogans are used with a photograph of one or more of the Remo Jacuzzi family members employed by Jason International, completely and prominently identifying each member; and
- (4) The slogans shall be used with a statement to the effect that:

Neither Jason Hydrotherapy nor Remo Jacuzzi, is associated with Jacuzzi Whirlpool Bath or Jacuzzi, Inc.

Or, with the following quote:

“After my family sold all interests in the Jacuzzi Company, I formed Jason Hydrotherapy. Today, Jason is a leader in Luxury-Class Bathing™ Systems. We are passionate about the benefits of hydrotherapy and dedicated to quality craftsmanship and innovative engineering.”

- Remo Jacuzzi -

Photographs of Remo Jacuzzi and his immediate family members are available from the Jason Marketing Department and use must be approved.

CORPORATE AND PRODUCT POSITIONING

Company Background - The Founder of Jason Hydrotherapy is Remo Jacuzzi, who brings his family legacy of hydrotherapy bathing innovation and excellence to the entire Jason product line. (Jason stands for JAcuzzi SON.) Jason International is a family-owned business established in 1982.

Designer Collection - The Jason Designer Collection weds design flexibility with state-of-the-art hydrotherapy technology. Customize baths that are ideally suited to your home and your preferences.

Integrity® Collection - Jason’s value-priced line of baths are designed for builders and other cost-conscious customers. The Integrity® Collection incorporates very high quality construction and many features generally not found on other baths in its price class. It is considered to be a “premium” value-priced line.

TRADEMARKS AND LOGOS

The trademarks and trademark art in this document are provided for your knowledge and use. For a digital copy of the artwork displayed in this document, please contact the Jason Marketing Department.

If you choose to make any communication concerning Jason products other than by the methods described and depicted here, please submit that communication for approval, PRIOR TO PUBLICATION, to Jason Hydrotherapy, Attention: Marketing Department.

Jason Hydrotherapy will not be responsible for any improper and unapproved use of the name, Remo Jacuzzi, in whole or in part, or the company trademarks.
